John Skelton Williams Asked Price of Control of Gold Hill Property.

PROBERS GET THE FACTS

Walter George Newman, Promot Also on Stand, Tells of Talking to Hennen Jennings.

John Skelton Williams, comptroller o the currency, and Walter George Newuan, promoter of the Gold Hill mining erty, were witnesses yesterday be-the Senate committee investigating itation of the property upon tionery obtained from the com-ons of Senators Overman and following statements:

That John Skelton Williams—then As-abstant Secretary of the Treasury—sug-gested that Waiter George Newman, the en Jennings, a mining engineer of con-derable wealth, who was formerly associated with Mr. Williams on the torate of the Senboard Air Line. That Mr. Newman met Jennings in Mr. Villiams' office, and that Williams asked Newman would sell control of the

Arranged Conference.

That John Skellon Williams later suggested and arranged a conference between Newman and Cleveland Perkins, another mining engineer who has been associated with Mr. Jennings in extenventures and who also served on Seaboard Air Line directorate with

That at this conference inquiries also were addressed to Newman as to his will-his brother Berkeley, of Richmond, that he and Mr. Jennings stop off at Sauisbury, N. C., and inspect the Newman mine, and that later Berkeley Williams did make the trip with an expert and in-vestigated the property. Most of the statements were made by Walter George Newman, the promoter; some were borne out by the testimony of Comptroller Williams himself. Paid Another Visit.

Of the conference attended by Herm Jennings and others in Mr. Williams' of-the comptroller said: Then Mr. Newman was advised that the development of his mine was not such as to justify the department in gosuch as to justify the department in go-ing ahead, or taking any steps looking to the opening of the aspay office. Mr. New-man paid another visit on me. I men-tioned Mr. Jennings as a man whom I had known to be an experienced and successful engineer in the operation of gold mines in South Africa.

"No Active Part."

"Did you take any part in the confer-nce?" saked Senator Hughes. No active part," said Mr. Williams. "I was in my office at the time. Kno In introducing Mr. Newman to unings, that Mr. Jennings should informed as to what the department knew about the matter. Therefore, if was that I asked Dr. Dewey (the assay expert who visited the mine) to come around and report verbally what he had discovered in a few hours of observation at the mine. Dr. Dewey stated what he had learned there, and that practically ended the matter so far as Mr. Jennings was concerned. I do not know whether Mr. Newman and Mr. Jennings met Newman kept reporting that he was Newman kept reporting that he was discovering new veins, and making new borings, but Mr. Williams was not satisfied that there was anything to justify the reopening of the assay office, said williams. athing Pool Must Close Unle Funds Are Provided.

Dr. William B. Hudson, superintendent of the Municipal bathing beach, yester-day stated that unless Congress provides funds, the pool probably will close Monday.

Chairman Fitzgerald, of the House Appropriations Committee, recently held that under the continuing resolution adopted to provide funds for operating the affairs of the District until the appropriation bill is passed, $201.25 is made available for the bathing beach for the first fifteen days of the fiscal year.

There seems to be a hitch, however, in the interpretation of the situation and unless Congress makes some specific ten porary appropriation for the beach it will have to close.
